十二月初,40名初中學生前往潮州參觀當地歷 史文化景點,並與城西中學學生親切交流。

2A 范俊彦 潮州人那種「愛拼才會贏」的精神,實在十分值得我們學習。堅毅不屈才會成功,「不經一番寒徹骨,爭得梅花撲鼻香」啊!此外,我也認識到潮州的保育工作,反觀香港的物質和非物質遺產,也應受到適當的保育,讓它們可以繼續傳承下去。

1D 梁梓寶 最難忘的應該是製造陶瓷, 我還記得那冷冰冰的觸感。最初我很討厭要 把手弄髒,但後來動手做下來,覺得還是挺 有趣的。因為聖誕節快來臨,我便弄了一個 雪人,樣貌雖然奇怪,但這活動卻帶給我很 多歡樂。

3D 王梓琦 陳慈覺故居使我們認識陳慈覺的事蹟、中西揉合的建築藝術和潮州古老的風俗文化;參觀中國瓷都陳列館和親手製作陶瓷,我們認識到潮州的陶瓷工藝及其文化背景;參觀中國四大古橋之一的廣濟橋,則讓我們了解潮州政府的文物保育政策和面對的挑戰,親身體驗潮州古城的城鎮規劃及建築。

Christmas Café

by Richard Boyd

On Wednesday 17th December English Corner was transformed into a festive café, with lots of delicious food and yummy drinks on offer. Many students came to the café with their friends and enjoyed the sound of popular Christmas music that was played as they ate and drank. Although the café was busy, students were served quickly by excellent EAT waiters and waitresses. The best thing about English Café was that all the food and drinks were free! The students just needed to use special tokens that they could win easily by participating in fun games and activities.

There were five activities or games that students could choose from outside English Corner to win tokens for the café. One of the games was Dress the Snowman, in which blindfolded students needed to pin a nose, hat, buttons and sunglasses onto a snowman. Students could also play Chimney Throw; a game where players needed to successfully throw Christmas presents into a chimney shaped box! Many students also played a Christmassy-themed game of Matching Pairs. For students with artistic talent, there were a number of drawing tasks and colouring puzzles to complete. Additionally, students were able to win tokens (and practice their English) by saying Christmas tongue twisters aloud. All games and activities ran smoothly thanks to the hard work of EAT members who helped.

Inside the café, students could choose from a wide selection of food and drinks by ordering from a special Christmas Café menu. Chocolate sandwiches, hot chocolate, popcorn and potato chips were the more popular items on the menu, but peanut butter and jam sandwiches, fruit punch, chocolate bars, marshmallows, cakes and nuts were also available. Waiters, waitresses and food servers did a great job of taking orders and plating up food for the hungry customers. By the end of lunch hour all the drinks had been drunk and most of the food was gone too!

It's a popular tradition to enjoy food and good company at Christmas time and that certainly happened at English Café. It was a fun and festive event thanks to the student customers who visited and the EAT members who helped. There'll be lots more events happening at English Corner this term, so see you all for more fun in 2015!
